DEVELOPING CLASS ATHLETES ON AND OFF THE FIELD SINCE 1988

Celebrating 20 Years of Renegades Baseball!

Summer 2007 marks the 20th Anniversary of the Renegades Baseball program. We are planning an early-August reunion event to bring together players, coaches, and parents! Watch for more information in early July.

LOOKING BACK

From the founding of the program in 1988 through the 2006 season, more than 270 14-year-olds have 'graduated' the Renegades program. Many went on to play college ball and a few have even made it to the pros. An informal survey of Renegades alumni indicates that baseball continues to be a consuming passion for many of you, and that the Renegades program influenced your lives in ways beyond the sport itself. The Renegades remains exceptional in its conviction that a team can compete — successfully — without abandoning class and good sportsmanship.

THE FUTURE AIN'T WHAT IT USED TO BE

The growth in competitive baseball teams requires us to expand our program if we are to continue to succeed. Our goal is to add teams at the 11- and 12-year-old level in addition to our current 13- and 14-year-old program. The timing of the expansion depends on our ability to secure additional field space. We will need additional coaches! If you have any interest in coaching a Renegades team, please contact Coach Bob Ugel at ugel24@sbcglobal.net Stay tuned for progress reports!

A class athlete is defined not simply by the characteristics of his play, but more precisely by the character he displays while playing.
